Forecast For Southwest England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Friday 16 Apr 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
A cold night, then dry with sunny spells Saturday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Remaining dry overnight, with clear spells but some patchy cloud lingering until dawn. Light winds throughout and feeling cold, with a widespread frost developing once again. Minimum temperature -3 deg C (27 deg F).

Saturday:
Another dry day, with some patchy cloud developing after a clear start. Sunny spells likely throughout however, feeling warm in any of these. A cold night following, with frost possible. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Dry and bright Sunday. Staying dry but cloudier, with the odd sunny spell, on Monday. Similar for Tuesday, but with a slight risk of patchy rain. Nights gradually becoming milder.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.